

Thoroughly Distinctive

Architect and Interior Designer: Ekta Ahuja of Tejomaya Designs

The Evidently finished finishes, the anthropometric furniture, the subtly created moods through textures and lights, the stunning color combination absolutely touches the viewer, to create 'moments to remember, the style to recollect' through the 'thoroughly distinctive' experience!

Ekta Ahuja of Tejomaya Designs believes in offering customized bespoke furniture. After reading and interpreting client's requirements to fit in their carte du jour, she conjured this four bedroom Living Dining Kitchen luxurious residence in a Neo-classic style at Andheri Mumbai, exactly to their flavor.

The stunning Entrance with the Poly Urethane coated grey flutes portrays this residence's first major character. The cove lighting, and the gold trims well indicate, the central entrance door besides the name plate.

The entrance hall in the course of the rustic hexagonal grey-brown flooring denotes the second character where in the white cage chair hanging down from the grey veneered ceiling chirpily welcomes.
